

Half Term: Today we break up for half term at 3.20pm and return to school on Tuesday 25th February 2020 at 8.50am. Staff have INSET on Monday which is why pupils begin on Tuesday.

Awards: This morning it was a real privilege to award 81 children with 'Excellent Attendance' and 107 children with '100% Attendance'. ## Inter-Faith Week

Northway hosted our annual Inter-Faith Week across School during afternoon lessons this week, co-ordinated by Miss Scott. It is so important that global citizens have the opportunity to learn about world religions and understand the viewpoint of others. This allows children to be tolerant and show respect of others, coming from a position of knowledge and understanding. It is also a lot of fun celebrating the diversity of our world. This year children have studied the following World Faiths:

- |                  |                         |
|------------------|-------------------------|
| Reception | Chinese New Year |
| Year 1    | Buddhism         |
| Year 2    | Sikh             |
| Year 3    | Hinduism         |
| Year 4    | Christianity     |
| Year 5    | Judaism          |
| Year 6    | Islam            |

Year 5 were fortunate enough to visit Princes Park Synagogue, one of the best examples of a traditional synagogue, right on our doorstep. They came back so enthused. Year 6 also tasted Baklava and explored traditional Islamic clothes thanks to a very kind parent, including an authentic Islamic wedding dress – thank you!

On Friday afternoon, children went on a learning journey across School and explored the learning each class had achieved. It was fantastic seeing snapshots of a wonderful week and the excitement of the children everywhere we went! Thank you to the parents who contributed to the week and those who were able to attend our Inter-Faith Carrousel.

I hope you have a fantastic half term – one that the children are so ready for.
